NB – Our Dufflecoats will be gradually phased out over the next 18 months. This means that your child can continue to wear their coat as part of the winter uniform. However, as they grow out of them, or when it becomes worn out, you will not need to replace them. If your child owns one, they should wear it to school. When your child grows out of the dufflecoat they will be expected to wear their school blazer and kagoole (weather dependent).*
